

Vero Beach High Announcements

Tuesday, August 15, 2023

Enforcement of the tardy policy will begin today. Students are expected to be in all their classes on time. At the late bell, doors will lock and late students must report to the cafeteria to get a late pass and then be escorted back to class. The 4th and each subsequent tardy receives a consequence beginning with after school detentions.

Laptop distributions and student continue this week for 11th and 12th grade only with your English class. 10th graders should have received their laptops last week, if you did not receive your laptop see your English teacher.

Students can only park in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior lots if you have a paid parking sticker. If you park in someone else's spot, you may be towed and further discipline.

Yearbooks are on sale for pre-orders at $60 at yearbookforever.com. Seniors, you must schedule your senior portraits for the yearbook at dsp-photo.com.

Thinking about a career in education? See Mrs. Wingate to join the Vero Beach High School Chapter of the Future Educators of America. Students will have volunteer opportunities to visit local elementary schools, earn volunteer hours for Bright Futures, and explore the various paths to a career in education. Please visit Mrs. Wingate in room 8-148, or leave your contact information on the sign-up sheet outside her door.

Vero Beach High School Literary Magazine, Tribal Writes, has been resurrected and is looking for new members to produce Vero's own student literary magazine for the digital age. If you are interested in creative writing or online publishing and site design, please see Mrs. Wingate in room 8-148 or leave your contact information on the sign-up sheet outside her door to let her know you are interested in participating in Tribal Writes, Vero's student literary magazine.
