Thursday, September 7, 2023

Your football team improved to 2-0 with a 26-11 win over #9 Ranked Palm Beach Gardens last night at the Citrus Bowl. The Offense racked up 495 yards of total offense and were led by Senior Quarterback Tyler Aronson. Aronson finished the night 24 of 34 passing for 302 yards. Sophomore Running Back Jonathan Hillsman had another big night with over 200 yards of total offense. Hillsman had 14 Carries for 131 yards and 1 Touchdown. Senior Receiver Isaiah Roberts had a big night with 8 Receptions for 112 yards and 1 Touchdown. Sophomore Jarvis Jacobs added a 21 yard Touchdown Reception.

The Defense was equally impressive as Junior Linebacker TJ Alford was dominant and led the team in tackles. Seniors Tutu Griffin, Amar Reynolds, and Elijah Anderson all had big nights. The Football team will be back in action next Friday night, September 15th, vs Fort Pierce Westwood. Kick Off will be at 7pm at the Citrus Bowl.

VBHS girls and boys team had a quad meet with South Fork, Jensen Beach and the Pine School. Both the girls and boys team defeated the pine school 116-33 and 62-59. The VBHS girls team won the 200 Medley and 400 free relays. Our individual first place finishers included: Kylie Jelfimow, Aniela Kelly, Kamila Branka, and Henry Hazell. Next meet Tuesday September 12th vs Sebastian River Sharks at the north county pool in Sebastian 4:30 pm. Come cheer us on and be cool at the pool! Go Indians!

The boys and girls bowling teams were both short of victories yesterday afternoon against Somerset Academy at Vero Bowl. The top scores for the boys were Asher Oliver's 201 and Shane Bender's 181. The Lady Indian bowling team would have been victorious, but they are in need of one or two more girls to join the team. If you are interested, please contact Coach Pohl at the main campus in room 2-205.
